

Role: Referral Clinician – Internal Medicine
Type: Full Time | Permanent
Salary: Negotiable
Location: Northumberland, United Kingdom

The Role

We are currently looking for an enthusiastic board-certified or board-eligible Internal Medic to join our friendly team in Cramlington, Northumberland. The role could either be as a Referral Clinician or a visiting Consultant to help us progress and develop our Internal Medicine service. We currently see a wide variety of patients including gastrointestinal, endocrine, respiratory, renal and haematology cases. Interest in any specific area of medicine is encouraged, and as we have an OOH service we have a high number of acute medical cases. We are happy to consider both part-time and full-time applicants and this role does not include any on-call or weekend work.

About Us

Our Internal Medicine department consists of four Advanced Practitioners, an ultrasonographer, and a radiographer. We are a very friendly, sociable department with a fantastic team of highly skilled, dedicated discipline-specific nurses (including three Diploma holders). During daytimes and out of hours we are supported by an AP-staffed ECC and surgical team, and a specialist-led neurology service. Mooview Referrals offers referrals in orthopaedics, soft tissue surgery, neurology, internal medicine, cardiology, ECC and oncology. Our practice is ideally situated, within easy reach of the stunning Northumberland coastline and the cultural delights of Newcastle upon Tyne. We offer great facilities at our state-of-the-art purpose-built hospital including a 1.5 Tesla MRI and Canon 160 Slice CT, Esaote MyLabX8 and Phillips IE33 ultrasound, ECG, fluoroscopy, flexible and rigid endoscopy, laparoscopy, arthroscopy, digital radiography, mechanical ventilation and in-house laboratory. We have 21 Veterinary Surgeons, including a neurology diplomat and resident, over 25 qualified Veterinary Nurses, a great team of Animal Care Assistants and superb customer care teams. All Veterinary Surgeons hold certificates in their designated field. We are a friendly practice, with a good work ethic and great teamwork.
