

Small Animal Internal Medicine Specialist – ARH Homebush

Are you a passionate Small Animal Medicine Specialist looking for a new and exciting opportunity?

Located in Sydney, Australia join a friendly, dedicated team at ARH Homebush, where you can thrive in a supportive and dynamic environment.

Why ARH Homebush?

At ARH Homebush, you'll work alongside a team of committed Specialists, Vets, and Nurses who are as dedicated to their craft as you are. We proudly serve the growing pet community of Homebush and surrounding suburbs, providing top-tier medical, surgical, oncology, and diagnostic services, including 24-hour emergency and critical care. Here, every day brings new challenges and rewards, making your work as fulfilling as it is diverse.

Your Role and Impact

As a Small Animal Medicine Specialist at our large multi-disciplinary and emergency hospital, you'll be at the forefront of veterinary care, leading by example and sharing your expertise with a highly skilled team. We value collaboration, growth, and excellence in patient care. You'll enjoy flexible work arrangements, mental health support, and ample opportunities for networking and professional development across the ARH and Greencross group.

What We're Looking For

Our new teammate must have a veterinary degree registerable in Australia, with specialist qualifications such as FANZCVS, ACVIM, or ECVIM Board certification. We are also eager to connect with veterinarians who have recently completed residency programs and are ready to take the next step in their careers.

We strongly believe that the right team fit is crucial, and we're looking for someone who excels in communication, organization, and time management. If you're passionate about delivering the best patient care, achieving outstanding clinical outcomes, and working in a fast-paced environment, we'd love to hear from you.

What We Offer:

- Generous and personalised salary package tailored to your expertise with incentive plans and bonus's.
- 4-day work week to ensure a fantastic work-life balance and time to enjoy Sydney's beautiful surroundings.
- Comprehensive leave benefits: 4 weeks of paid annual leave, personal/sick leave plus 1 week of study leave.
- Relocation allowance for interstate applicants and Australian Visa support.
- Tailored Continuing Professional Education allowance to keep you at the top of your field.
- Access to premium veterinary resources, including VIN, VECCS, Dove Lewis, and more.
- 6 weeks paid parental leave in addition to the government scheme with flexible return-to-work options.
- Employee Assistance Program offering free, confidential counselling sessions for you and your immediate family.
- Exclusive discounts on ARH, Petbarn, and Greencross for your own pets.

- All-inclusive access to the Greencross Clinical Symposium, one of Australia's largest and most respected veterinary conferences.

Where You Will Be Living:

Homebush is located just 14kms from Sydney's CBD and offers the perfect blend of suburban tranquillity and urban convenience. Its excellent transportation links, including major train and bus lines, make commuting to the city and surrounding areas a breeze. The suburb boasts a variety of amenities, such as Paddy's Markets, where you can enjoy fresh produce, flowers, and seafood. With a range of dining options, quality schools, and nearby Sydney Olympic Park for recreational activities, Homebush is an ideal location for families and professionals alike.

For veterinary professionals, Homebush provides an optimal environment to balance work and personal life. The proximity to ARH Homebush allows for a short commute, giving you more time to enjoy the suburb's offerings. The friendly, community-oriented atmosphere, coupled with the diverse housing options, ensures that you can find a home that suits your lifestyle. Whether you're looking to advance your career at a leading veterinary hospital or simply enjoy a well-rounded lifestyle, Homebush presents a compelling choice.
