Successful candidates should have a demonstrated ability to build a world-class research programme related to CityUHK's strategic research areas, plus a commitment to education and student mentorship. Candidates must possess a doctorate in their respective field by the time of appointment.

The position will be appointed on clinical track or tenure track.

Duties

The appointee will actively contribute to the missions of VCS to train highly professional veterinary clinicians, to advance animal health through cutting-edge clinical research and to engage with and support the local community. The appointee will teach in the final years of the BVM curriculum to ensure that students can attain Day 1 competencies by integrating and applying knowledge, skills and professional attitudes; lead students on clinical rotations and provide clinical services for our clinical partner; contribute to didactic and laboratory teaching; take up administrative work and other duties to facilitate the development of the College and its Departments as a whole. Active involvement in research is an important component of this job and the successful candidate will be supported to establish his/her clinical research.

Requirements

Candidates shall possess a veterinary qualification recognised for registration as a veterinary surgeon in Hong Kong. Board certification (European, Australian/New Zealand, American, or equivalent Boards, including ABVP) in Small Animal Internal Medicine is required for appointment at Clinical Associate Professor level or above. For Clinical Assistant Professors, credentials for Board certification should be completed or near completion. Experience in clinical teaching, service and research is required. A postgraduate teaching or research qualification would be an advantage.

Salary and Conditions of Service

Remuneration package will be driven by market competitiveness and individual performance. Excellent fringe benefits include gratuity, leave, medical and dental schemes, and relocation assistance (where applicable). Initial appointment will be made on a fixed-term contract.
