

Ecole Nationale Vétérinaire d'Alfort

Centre Hospitalier Universitaire Vétérinaire d'Alfort
7 Avenue du Général de Gaulle
94700 Maisons Alfort
France

Resident in small animal oncology (starting date 1.09.2025)

The internal medicine department of the teaching hospital of Maisons-Alfort (CHUVA, Centre hospitalier universitaire vétérinaire d'Alfort) offers 1 position for a 3 years training program structured according to the guidelines of, and approved by, the ECVIM-CA.

The resident will take primary responsibility for small animal Oncology and Internal Medicine cases. He/she will be scheduled to take part in the primary emergency duty rotation of the Veterinary Teaching Hospital. The resident will be involved in clinical teaching to students and in advising interns. External rotations (in France and abroad) are part of the program. The Resident will also take part to one or several clinical research studies. The program is under supervision of 1 ECVIM Diplomate.

Required profile: A European Association of Establishments for Veterinary Education – approved DVM (or equivalent veterinary degree completed with a valid license to work in France) is mandatory. Candidates should have successfully completed a one-year rotating internship program (or at least two years of experience in a small animal practice with a dedicated area for internal medicine).

They should be French speaking and be able to efficiently communicate with patient's owners.

For additional information please contact Dr Jérémy Béguin (jeremy.beguin@vet-alfort.fr), DVM, Ms, PhD, DipECVIM-CA (oncology), Associate professor in Internal médecine, Ecole Nationale Vétérinaire d'Alfort, 7, avenue du Générale de Gaulle, 94700 Maisons-Alfort, France. Applications should include updated curriculum vitae including the names of 2 referees, a letter of intent, and at least 2 reference letters. Applications and reference letters must be sent (by email) to Dr Jérémy Béguin (jeremy.beguin@vet-alfort.fr), with copy to secretariatchuva@vet-alfort.fr

Deadline for applications is March, 4th 2025. Selected candidates will be invited for an interview on the 10/04/2025.