

Internal Medicine Specialist Clinical Consultation Service Zoetis Diagnostics

Global Clinical Consultation Service | Remote | Full-Time

Are you a passionate veterinary internal medicine specialist looking to make a global impact—without leaving your home? Join our Global Clinical Consultation Service and become part of a collaborative, forward-thinking team that's transforming animal health through innovation and expertise.

The successful candidate will have strong organizational and communication skills, as well as the ability to build and foster relationships with customers, while demonstrating a passion for service to the veterinary community. This is a values-driven organization where service is a priority. You will be joining a team of seven full-time internal medicine specialists and over 50 specialists in other disciplines, to provide advice to customers globally.

As a key member of our virtual consultation team, you'll:

- Provide expert internal medicine advice to veterinarians worldwide via email, Zoom, and phone.
- Guide clinical decision-making by interpreting lab results, recommending diagnostics, and advising on case management.
- Be part of a global network of over 50 board-certified specialists across multiple disciplines.
- Contribute to continuing education by developing and delivering engaging content for our customers.
- Help shape the future of veterinary diagnostics.

What we're looking for

We're seeking a board-certified specialist (ACVIM, ECVIM, or RCVS Diploma in Small Animal Internal Medicine) who is:

- A natural communicator with excellent interpersonal and organizational skills.
- Passionate about customer service and building lasting relationships.
- A team player who thrives in a collaborative, remote environment.
- Tech-savvy and comfortable working with digital tools and platforms.
- Experienced—ideally with 5+ years in specialist-level internal medicine.

Why Zoetis?

- Be part of a values-driven organization where service and innovation go hand in hand.
- Work remotely with flexibility and autonomy.
- Join a team that's global, supportive, and deeply committed to veterinary excellence.
- Make a real difference in the lives of animals and the professionals who care for them.

As we are a global service, this role is open to candidates worldwide. If you think this might be the next position for you, I'm very happy to chat informally, and in confidence.
