Join a premier veterinary referral center in Geneva, Switzerland

Position : Veterinary Internal Medicine Specialist

Step into excellence

At the heart of Europe, nestled in the vibrant and cosmopolitan region of Lake Geneva, our leading veterinary referral center is expanding. We're looking for a specialist in internal medicine ready to join a team of top-tier experts and contribute to the evolution of a center where clinical excellence, teamwork, and innovation meet.

The candidate

- Should hold ECVIM/ACVIM (Small Animal Internal Medicine) diplomate status or be board-eligible.
- Must excel as a team player and demonstrate the ability to work autonomously.
- Should be a good team player and must have both oral and written proficiency in the French language (level B2 required).

Why choose us

- Specialist-powered: Work alongside a team of internationally trained diplomates in small animal surgery (ECVS, ACVS, ACVS Fellow Surgical Oncology), critical care and emergency (ACVECC, ECVECC), medical oncology (ECVIM oncology), ophthalmology (ECVO), dermatology (ECVD), reproduction (ECAR), anesthesiology (ECVA), dentistry (EVDC) and sports medicine & rehabilitation (ECVSMR).
- Cutting-edge facilities: Advanced imaging (CT, ultrasound, X-ray, fluoroscopy), endoscopy, in-house labs, a full surgical suite, and a state-of-the-art rehabilitation unit with hydrotherapy and laser therapy.
- Integrated 24/7 care: Round-the-clock emergency and hospitalization services ensure seamless patient management and follow-up.
