

Internal Medicine Specialist

Drive excellence in Internal Medicine while coaching the next generation of clinicians.

About Us:

Based in Townsville Queensland, JCUVet is North Queensland's only veterinary teaching hospital, referral, and specialist centre.

JCUVet is passionate about training exceptional veterinary professionals while delivering specialised, GP and emergency veterinary care to our community. By integrating teaching with high-performing clinical services, we have a veterinary hospital that advances the profession today and secures its future tomorrow.

We are looking for someone to join our team of passionate professionals.

About the role

We are looking for an internal medicine specialist to join the JCUVet team. In this role you will lead a team to deliver advanced medical care for referred patients locally and statewide. Working in a multidisciplinary hospital, you will be supported by an experienced team of specialists, nurses and rotating interns.

Relocate to tropical Townsville where opportunity meets lifestyle! This is a permanent full time role with relocation assistance negotiable for the preferred candidate.

About you

- Board certified or Board eligible medicine specialist with either the American, European or Australian colleges (DACVIM, DECVIM, FANZCVS)
- Previous experience mentoring and guiding interns and students

What we offer

Lifestyle. Learning. Industry Leadership.

Build the life you want, keep growing at the cutting edge, and help shape the future of the profession.

Lifestyle:

- 4-day work week - Enjoy a roster designed to support your work-life balance in a tropical paradise!
- Up to 14 weeks paid parental leave
- Relocation assistance available – including assistance with visas, schools and sourcing accommodation.
- Access to Fitness Passport, Employee discounts and Employee Assistance Program
- Competitive above award salary plus 12% superannuation

Learning:

- Generous CPD allowance plus 1 week paid study leave per calendar year.
- Continuous learning and development opportunities.
- Work at the cutting edge inside a university-based teaching hospital with access to the latest equipment

Industry Leadership:

- Industry impact. Sharing your expertise with the wider profession through delivering CPD events and workshops on the topics you're passionate about.
- Leading internal medicine standards across the hospital, guiding interns and vets in safe, high-quality care.
- Shaping the next generation of vets with your knowledge and passion

Like to join us on our journey

If you are excited about the prospect of advancing your career, contributing to a positive workplace culture, and truly feeling valued we want to hear from you!

JCUVet is an equal-opportunity employer and welcomes applications from all suitable applicants. This position requires Australian work rights. Applicants must be Australian citizens, permanent residents, or hold a valid visa with permission to work.
