

Small Animal Internal Medicine Specialist

Full-Time | Peninsula Vet Emergency & Referral Hospital | Mornington Peninsula, Victoria, Australia

Practice Exceptional Medicine. Enjoy an Exceptional Lifestyle.

Peninsula Vet Emergency & Referral Hospital (Peninsula ERH) is seeking a Small Animal Internal Medicine Specialist to join our growing referral team on Victoria's stunning Mornington Peninsula.

This is an exciting opportunity to become part of a collaborative specialist hospital where you'll manage a diverse and rewarding referral caseload, work alongside an experienced team of specialists and emergency clinicians and help shape the future of our Internal Medicine service.

Whether you're an experienced diplomate or recently board-certified, you'll find a supportive environment that encourages clinical excellence, professional development, and genuine work-life balance.

About Us

Peninsula ERH is one of Victoria's leading specialist and emergency referral hospitals, providing exceptional patient care to Melbourne's southeast and the Mornington Peninsula.

Our purpose-built hospital has been designed to support collaboration across specialties, allowing clinicians to deliver outstanding patient outcomes while enjoying a positive and supportive workplace culture.

At Peninsula ERH, we pride ourselves on combining advanced medicine with genuine teamwork. We believe the best patient outcomes come from clinicians who enjoy working together, sharing knowledge, and supporting one another every day.

Facilities

- Comprehensive Advance Imaging: CT, digital radiography, fluoroscopy, and high-quality ultrasound units (including cardiac and abdominal capabilities)
- Endoscopy suite: Flexible and rigid endoscopy, bronchoscopy, cystoscopy, and arthroscopy
- Purpose-Built Referral Hospital: Modern treatment and procedure areas, experienced nursing support and a collaborative approach to case management

About the Role

As a Small Animal Internal Medicine Specialist, you'll manage a broad and interesting referral caseload.

Your responsibilities will include:

- Managing referral medicine consultations and inpatient care
- Performing advanced diagnostic procedures including ultrasound and endoscopy
- Working collaboratively with surgery, emergency and referral clinicians
- Mentoring interns and contributing to continuing education
- Supporting the ongoing growth and development of the Internal Medicine service

This role offers significant clinical autonomy while providing the support of an experienced specialist team and excellent nursing staff.

Requirements

- Board-certified diplomate of the ACVIM or ECVIM-CA, or fellowship of the ANZCVS in Small Animal Medicine. Residency-trained candidates also considered.
- Eligible for veterinary registration in Victoria
- Driven by Peninsula ERH's values of integrity, excellence, community, and genuine care.

Why Join us?

- Competitive package + 12% superannuation, packages based on experience, leadership expertise and specialist qualifications.
On top of your salary, we offer a generous CPD allowance and board exam support where applicable
- Leave & Flexibility: Generous leave entitlements including annual leave, study leave, personal leave and paid parental leave.
- Relocation support: Comprehensive visa support, relocation assistance and registration guidance
- Wellbeing & Culture: Access to Mental Health and Employee Assistance Programs, employee benefits, and a culture that values collaboration, professional growth, and work-life balance
- Professional Development: Access to the wider VetPartners Specialty Network for mentorship, training and research opportunities, multidisciplinary specialist support, and professional networking

The Mornington Peninsula offers an incredible lifestyle while still providing convenient access to Melbourne when city life calls — just over an hour door to door.
